The drive takes us across the moors within the Cairngorms National Park to a "large estate house": BALMORAL – once a hunting lodge for King Robert II of Scotland ( 1316-1390). Now in "modern times" the residence for members of the Royal Family! Though called a castle, it is now a country house from the Victorian period. Exhibitions, gift shop, etc. Lunch facilities can be found in "The Pipers Hall Café" Back at the hotel we will meet up for dinner!

Crieff Hydro Hotel

In the middle of Perthshire in secluded countryside. Fill up your cars and get ready for a great, scenic run amongst the dramatic Scottish Highlands! We aim to get to the Crieff Hydro Hotel, where the owner Mr. Stephen Leckie, a club member of the Scottish Section, will welcome us! By this time you will be ready for a Scottish treat of lunch here in the Meikle Restaurant (by the Chef Bruce, three times winner of "Scottish chefs of the Year") In due time, find your way back to the Atholl Hotel for a relaxing evening and dinner.

FRIDAY 17 May

House of Bruar (and distilleries) - The home of Country Clothing, Scottish food & drink and so much more....

A short drive from the hotel – park up and enjoy your day at Bruar; check the wonderful displays of pure Cashmere, clothes, sporting goods as well as their huge food-hall. You can enjoy a spot of lunch in your own good time!

For those who can't spend all day shopping, there is the alternative of visiting a distillery.

There is a distillery in the nearby area;

DALWHINNIE distillery in Cairngorm, about 40 minutes drive, tour followed by Whisky tasting and handmade chocolates! Or

BLAIR ATHOLL distillery, on Perth Road, Pitlochry ( one of the oldest working distilleries, the home of Bells).

You can have a "wee dram" at these places, but remember to get back to the hotel for dinner and a special "Highland Evening!"

Blair Castle could also be a place to visit after House of Bruar..
